Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be the holy Trinity,+ one God,
God of manna,
God of miracles,
God of mercy.

Amen.

Drawn to Christ and seeking God's abundance,
we confess our sin.

God, our provider,

help us.

It is hard to believe there is enough to share.

We question your ways when they differ from the ways of the world in which we live.

We turn to our own understanding rather than trusting in you.

We take offense at your teachings and your ways.

Turn us again to you.

For where else can we turn?

Share with us the words of eternal life and feed us for life in the world.

Amen.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Beloved people of God:

in Jesus, the manna from heaven,
you are fed and nourished;

by Jesus, the worker of miracles,
there is always more than enough;

through Jesus, + the bread of life,
you are shown God's mercy:

you are forgiven and loved into abundant life.

Amen.

Prayer of the Day

O God of creation, eternal majesty, you preside over land and sea, sunshine and storm.

By your strength pilot us, by your power preserve us,
by your wisdom instruct us, and by your hand protect us, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

First Reading

A reading from Job.

Job 38:1-11

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:

“Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
Gird up your loins like a man,
I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell me, if you have understanding.
Who determined its measurements—surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?
On what were its bases sunk,
or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

“Or who shut in the sea with doors
when it burst out from the womb?—
when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band,
and prescribed bounds for it,
and set bars and doors,
and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stopped’?

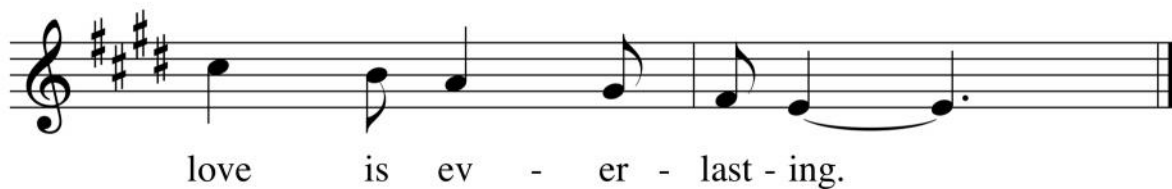

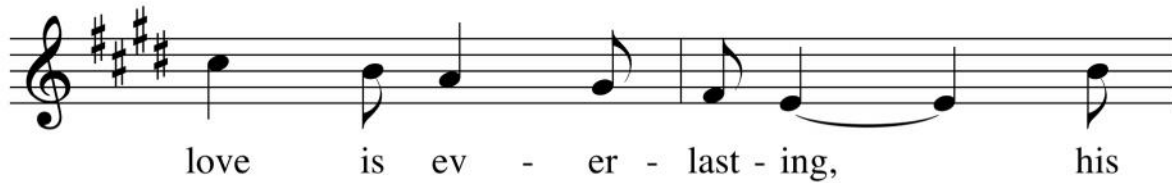

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107 • “Give Thanks to the Lord”

Lyric Psalter, OneLicense #97872

Cantor sings refrain; then all repeat. Cantor sings verses.

Some went down to the sea in ships,
to trade on the mighty waters.
These have seen the deeds of the Lord,
the wonders he does in the deep. Refrain.

For he spoke and raised up the stormwind, tossing high the waves of the sea
that surged to heaven and dropped to the depths.
Their souls melted away in their distress. Refrain.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need,
and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper,
and the waves of the sea were hushed. Refrain.

They rejoiced because of the calm,
and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his mercy,
his wonders for the children of men. Refrain.

Second Reading

A reading from the second letter to the Corinthians.

2 Corinthians 6:1-13

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says,

“At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.”

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Mark 4:35-41

When evening had come, [Jesus said to the disciples,] “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

Together, we confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the Church

The italicized portions of the prayers consist of verses from various Psalms.

Why, O Lord, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble? Our nation is sinking into a pit we have made. In our own net has our foot been caught. We are snared by the work of our own hands. So many mouths are filled with cursing and deceit and oppression and under their tongues lie mischief and iniquity.

Rise up, O Lord! O God, lift up your hand!

Why, O Lord, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble? Deep in the hearts of wicked [leaders] there is no fear of God. They flatter themselves that their iniquity cannot be found out. The words of their mouth are mischief and deceit and they have ceased to act wisely and do good. Break the arm of the wicked and seek out their wickedness until you find none.

Rise up, O Lord! Deliver us, O our God!

Why, O Lord, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble? For our days pass away like smoke, our bones burn like a furnace [with illness], our hearts stricken [with fear] wither like grass, our eyes waste away because of grief. So many hunger and thirst that their souls faint within them.

We call on the Lord: O Lord, we pray, save our lives!

O Lord, you do see! Indeed, you note trouble and grief that you may take it into your own hands. Those in need will not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor [in life and in spirit] perish forever.

O that we might see some good! Put gladness into our hearts. Let the light of your face shine on us O Lord!

In our distress we call upon the Lord who is worthy to be praised! To our God we cry for help...and he hears our voice, our cries reach his ears. He delivers us! He delights in us! He lights up our darkness! He girds us with strength! He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

For who is God except the Lord? Who is a rock besides our God? Blessed be the rock and the God of our salvation!

Lord Jesus, you make us into family, make us your own through water and Word in baptism. We celebrate with these siblings in faith your promise of forgiveness and new risen life: Stuart Anderson, Gary Pouley, Jeanne Pouley, and Kim Soeder. Guide them to trust you, to proclaim Jesus through word and action, to care for others and the world you have made, and to work for peace and justice for all.

And, Lord Jesus, we raise our prayers to you for the health, the heartfelt hope for healing, of these among us who long for your tender touch and care: [names of individuals.]

Into your hands we place all our hope and our prayer, in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

Deacons for the week are named.

O God of tender compassion, as you healed the sick and welcomed the stranger, bless those who leave this assembly to share the gifts of this table with our sisters and brothers who are sick or homebound. May they be sustained by the love and prayers of this community, and by the Bread of life that satisfies all hunger, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Sending Hymn • “My Life Flows On in Endless Song”

Evangelical Lutheran Worship 763

- 1 My life flows on in end-less song; a-bove earth's lam-en-ta-tion,
2 Through all the tu-mult and the strife, I hear that mu-sic ring-ing.
4 The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a foun-tain ev-er spring-ing!

I catch the sweet, though far-off hymn that hails a new cre-a-tion.
It finds an ech-o in my soul. How can I keep from sing-ing?

All things are mine since I am his! How can I keep from sing-ing?

Refrain

No storm can shake my in-most calm while to that Rock I'm cling-ing.

Since Christ is Lord of heav-en and earth, how can I keep from sing-ing?

Sending

Go in peace. You are the body of Christ.

Thanks be to God.

VISIT with a PASTOR

In his Catechism, Martin Luther talked about the importance of something he called “The Mutual Conversation and Consolation of the Saints.” He is referring to the power and importance of community, and especially the time spent visiting together as a community of faith. He stressed the importance of simple, down-to-earth time spent listening and talking with one another as a way to offer care and support.

In light of Luther’s encouragement to engage with one another regularly, please check all that apply, fill out your contact information, and return this form to the MVLC Church Office.
