AFFIRMATION OF BAPTISM AND RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS

Member of the MVLC Church Council:

The following people desire to make public affirmation of their baptism as a sign of their participation in the life and work of the church of Christ.

They come to us as those affirming their faithful participation in the Body of Christ, and as Lutheran transfer members.

Sponsors stand near their new members as they are named.

- ) Kyra Kehm-Goins

- ) Tore Sleveland

Dear friends, we rejoice that you now desire to make public profession of your faith and assume greater responsibility in the life of our Christian community and its mission to the world.

Siblings in Christ: In Holy Baptism our Lord Jesus Christ received you and made you members of his Church. In the community of God's people, you have learned from his Word, God's loving purpose for you and all creation. You have been called to be witnesses to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

With the whole church, let us confess our faith:

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Together we have mutually confessed our faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed. Do you as new members intend to continue in the covenant God made with you in Holy Baptism: to live among God's faithful people, to hear his Word and share in his supper, to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed, to serve all people, following the example of our Lord Jesus, and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth?

New members:

Yes, by the help of God.

Let us pray.

Gracious Lord, through water and the Spirit you have made these men and women your own. You forgave them all their sins and brought them to newness of life. Continue to strengthen them with your Holy Spirit, and daily increase in them your gifts of grace: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord, the spirit of joy in your presence; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Let us welcome these new members.

We welcome you into this body in Christ and into the mission we share: join us in giving thanks and praise to God and bearing God's creative and redeeming word to all the world.

*The congregation returns to their seats while singing

CALL TO WORSHIP

By the waters of Babylon, there we wept when we remembered.

By the waters of the kitchen sink, there we wept.
And on the living room couch, and in the empty school room,
and beside the makeshift dining room table office.

How could we sing God's song in a strange land?

How could we sing God's song over Zoom?

By the waters of Babylon,

there we wept and remembered.

We remembered that ancient rhythm of separation and homecoming,

exile and return,
going out and coming in.

You who are by the waters of Babylon: Come!

From kitchens and home offices, sidewalks and parking lots, we come!

You who remembers and you who do not: Come!

Sometimes remembering clearly,
sometimes confused by nostalgia, we come!
By car and by computer, we come!

God goes with every exile;

God rejoices with every return.

In Babylon and Jerusalem,
in strange lands and familiar rooms,

in sanctuaries and on screens,
in pews or chairs, couches or recliners,

let us worship God!

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Generous God,
you gave your servant Solomon wisdom so that he might govern your people well.

Grant us your wisdom, so that we might perform our life's duties
with gratitude and wisdom.

We pray these things
in the name of Jesus Christ,
our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

Sit.

READING

A reading from the first book of the Kings.

1 Kings 3:4-28

<sup>4</sup>[King Solomon] went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup>At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, “Ask what I should give you.” <sup>6</sup>And Solomon said, “You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. <sup>7</sup>And now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. <sup>8</sup>And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. <sup>9</sup>Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?”

<sup>10</sup>It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. <sup>11</sup>God said to him, “Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, <sup>12</sup>I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you. <sup>13</sup>I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor all your life; no other king shall compare with you. <sup>14</sup>If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Solomon awoke; it had been a dream. He came to Jerusalem where he stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. He offered up burnt offerings and offerings of well-being, and provided a feast for all his servants.

<sup>16</sup>Later, two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him. <sup>17</sup>The one woman said, “Please, my lord, this woman and I live in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house. <sup>18</sup>Then on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. We were together; there was no one else with us in the house, only the two of us were in the house. <sup>19</sup>Then this woman’s son died in the night, because she lay on him. <sup>20</sup>She got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your servant slept. She laid him at her breast, and laid her dead son at my breast. <sup>21</sup>When I rose in the morning to nurse my son, I saw that he was dead; but when I looked at him closely in the morning, clearly it was not the son I had borne.” <sup>22</sup>But the other woman said, “No, the living son is mine, and the dead son is yours.” The first said, “No, the dead son is yours, and the living son is mine.” So they argued before the king.

<sup>23</sup>Then the king said, “The one says, ‘This is my son that is alive, and your son is dead’; while the other says, ‘Not so! Your son is dead, and my son is the living one.’” <sup>24</sup>So the king said, “Bring me a sword,” and they brought a sword before the king. <sup>25</sup>The king said, “Divide the living boy in two; then give half to the one, and half to the other.” <sup>26</sup>But the woman whose son was alive said to the king—because compassion for her son burned within her—“Please, my lord, give her the living boy; certainly do not kill him!” The other said, “It shall be neither mine nor yours; divide it.” <sup>27</sup>Then the king responded: “Give the first woman the living boy; do not kill him. She is his mother.” <sup>28</sup>All Israel heard of the judgment that the king had rendered; and they stood in awe of the king, because they perceived that the wisdom of God was in him, to execute justice.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

It is the way of life with God.

As with the people, so with our money:
gather and disperse, gather and disperse.

As with the people, so with our money:

As with the people, so with our money:
the gathering is good, but the giving,
the sending out into the world, is even better!

It's the heart of the heart of everything!

Friends, the offering will now be gathered and sent,
all for the sake of "a future with hope."

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Behold, I Make All Things New

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a rest for the Leader, followed by the ALL: section. The second staff continues the ALL: section and then the Leader: section. The third staff is for the ALL: section. The fourth staff features a melodic line with a long slur and two 'Mmmm' markings, indicating a humming or sustained tone. The lyrics are: 'The Lord be with you. And al - so with you. Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.'

Leader: ALL: Leader: 3
The Lord be with you. And al - so with you. Lift up your hearts.

ALL: Leader:
We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

ALL:
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Mmmm Mmmm

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, Almighty God, through our Savior, Jesus Christ,

who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

So, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth
and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name
and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS • "HOLY, HOLY, HOLY"

Behold, I Make All Things New

Sing each line once.

1. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might

2. Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho-san - na in the high - est

3. Bless'd is he who comes in the name of the Lord

*To conclude, we will sing all three lines at the same time;
doing such twice.*

You choose which line (1, 2, or 3) you want to sing each time.

(So you will sing line 1, line 2, line 3, line 1/2/3, line 1/2/3.)

Evangelical Lutheran Worship 496

Stand.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God of the abundant table,

you have refreshed our hearts in this meal with bread for the journey.

Give us your grace on the road that we might serve our neighbors with joy;
for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

DEACON SENDING

Deacons are called to “make Christ and his redemptive love known by word and example.” (1 Timothy)

Such love is expressed in the extension of Holy Communion to those who are homebound or hospitalized.

O God of tender compassion,

as you healed the sick and welcomed the stranger, bless those who leave this assembly to share the gifts of this table with our sisters and brothers who are sick or homebound.

May they be sustained by the love and prayers of this community, and by the Bread of Life that satisfies all hunger, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

The time for sending is here, for separation, for dispersal, for exile.

It will not last forever; to return is our destiny.

We will be together again, and the question then will be:
what did you do with your time when we were apart?

May the God who is the home of the exile,
Jesus, who was and is an exile himself, and the Spirit, who goes with us as we love and serve,
be with you until we meet again.

Amen.
