READING

A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

Matthew 28:1-10

<sup>1</sup>After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. <sup>3</sup>His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. <sup>4</sup>For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. <sup>5</sup>But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. <sup>6</sup>He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. <sup>7</sup>Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you." <sup>8</sup>So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. <sup>9</sup>Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ!

CREED

Together, let us confess our faith.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

United in the hope and joy of the resurrection,
let us pray for the church, the world, and all in need.

At the conclusion of each petition:

Risen Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Rejoicing in the victory of Christ's resurrection,
we lift our prayers and praise to you, almighty and eternal God;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.

Amen.

SHARING OF THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

The ELCA Young Adults in Global Mission program invites ELCA young adults ages 21-29 into a transformative, year-long journey in international service. As they offer themselves in service, ELCA young adults are shaped by the witness of our global neighbors. They share in the journeys of companion churches and organizations in one of nine countries around the world. Michael and Beckah will share their experiences as YAGMs and how the program has had an ongoing impact on their lives.

“Faith and Christian Nationalism” with PLU Professor Seth Dowland.

This three-week series will investigate the historical roots of Christian nationalism. We'll look at the ways white Christians defended white supremacy in the decades after the Civil War, the bitter debates about gender and sexuality that roiled the church in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries, and contemporary expressions of Christian nationalism. Understanding the roots of our divisions is an essential step in addressing them. Come join us as we explore this history, and think together about how to move forward as a church and as a nation.

“Honoring Our Neighbor’s Faith” with Pastor Briana Merkle.

We co-inhabit an area with people of many faith traditions; our kids go to schools filled with students of different faiths. In this series, we will seek to be good neighbors through learning about and respecting the beliefs and practices of those we live in community with. We will also visit and worship with various faith communities in our area, reaching out in partnership as we seek to learn and grow in relationship.

Questions that will center this series include: What are the pillars of belief in each faith? What do Christians share in common with various traditions and what is distinct to each? What do we admire about each tradition?
